

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

MHH Contracting recognises that its business activities interact with the environment in a variety of ways. These activities have an impact in the key areas of:

- Raw material use
- Fossil fuel consumption
- Energy use
- Generation of waste materials

MHH Contracting recognises that it has a responsibility to help protect the environment wherever it has an opportunity to do so, be a responsible neighbour and to provide a comfortable environment for its employees to work in.

As such, MHH Contracting is committed to:

- Continual improvement in the environmental impact of its business activities
- Improving the environmental benefits provided by its recycled products/services produced in accordance with the WRAP protocol
- Preventing pollution
- Complying with all relevant legal, customer, and other third party requirements
- Adopting best practices applicable to its activities wherever it is practical to do so

MHH Contracting will achieve these commitments through the following means:

- The implementation and maintenance of an Environmental Management System that is independently certified as compliant with ISO 14001:2004
- Employing processes that identify the aspects of the Company's business that have an environmental impact and quantifying the significance of each aspect
- Setting objectives for reducing its environmental impact and maintaining an environmental performance improvement programme to enable them to be achieved
- Ensuring that its employees, suppliers and customers are aware of any support required by them to support the Company's commitments and environmental objectives
- Training its employees in good environmental protection practices and encouraging employee involvement in environmental improvement initiatives with key management trained to WAMITAB certification
- Employing local labour, bidding for local contracts and maintaining a rolling replacement fleet programme to assist in reducing the environmental impact
- Continually monitoring the environmental impact of its business activities

The implementation of this Environmental Policy is fundamental to the success of MHH Contracting's business and must be supported by all employees as an integral part of their daily work.
